

| Legal Cases   | Contacts   | Information   | Plaintiff/Defendant |
|---|--|---|---------------------|
| Kennedy v McCormick   | Randy Catanese, Westlake Village, CA   | Federal Case that was settled 3 days prior to trial. Sales fraud case whereby seller sold horse for low 5 digit price and buyer purchased horse for 6 digit price and was then delivered a different horse. Additionally discovered horse had previous colic surgery and was not a Young Riders Horse as represented.   | P                   |
| Raylyn Farms v Erie Insurance   | Mr. Leonard C. Redmond, Attorney, Maryland   | Insurance case regarding value of imported jumper that did not successfully show after imported. Was in a trailer accident 9 months after importation and 6 months after last show as it had been laid up. After trailer accident value was claimed to have increased from $200K to $1MM with no successful show career and as a broodmare.   | D                   |
| Syndication Group v Marleta Lillejord;Cameron Equestrian Center;Greg Best   |  | Appraised a prospective Grand Prix jumper purchased in a syndication group arranged by Marleta Lillejord for former Olympic rider Greg Best. Horse was imported to Australia and never trained. Imported back to US by Syndication where by I evaluated him for restitution.  | P                   |
| Fisk v. Thal  | Brent Estergard, Zurich Insurance and Joseph B. Wosick, Attorney, Albuquerque, NM (Zurich) | Medical Mal-practice case where young imported Westphalen Dressage stallion was bred at a veterinarian facility and during the breeding escaped, climbed a wall and impaled his heart and died.   | D                   |
| Harris v. High Voltage  | Michele Braukmann, attorney, MT  | Electrician worked on a barn. Western pleasure horse chewed on some wires and died. Value of horse had to be determined.  | D                   |
| Wrigley v. WrigleyCatherine Norris v. Jan Eberling, Amy Ebeling,Ann Romney, Doug Herthel, Alamo PintadoEquine | Schiller, DuCanto, Fleck, Chicago, ILRobyn Ranke, San Diego, CA                    | Divorce case. Hired as an expert in high profile divorce case to determine appropriate expenditures for daughters yearly horse expenses for horse. Purchases (type, quantity and quality of horses), showing, training, equipment, etc... for AA show scene.  | D                   |
| Frank v LoveJeff Willis Schukers v Robert Michael Heffron   | David Deaderick, Austin, TXRobert Michael Heffron, Dallas, TX                          | Served as a consulting expert for the plaintiff and also assisted in locating the veterinarian expert for the Plaintiff   | P                   |
| Delphine Largeteau v Katy Equine  | Michele Keating, Attorney, Houston, TX (Zurich)  | Two trail horses and a miniature pony that escaped their pastures and were shot and killed when they entered a neighbors pasture.Cutting horse permanently injured due to a trailer accident  | D                   |
| Norris v Jan Eberling; Ann Romney; AlamoPintado Equine Clinic   | Robyne Ranke, Esq San Diego, CA  | Medical Mal - practice case where dressage horse goes in for surgery and dies while in the care of the veterinarian.Norris sued Romney, Eberling and Alamo Pintado Equine Clinic over selling her a horse that was known to have issues and could not perform as a dressage horse. Horse was heavily drugged at time of pre-purchase exam. Hired as a consulting expert by Plaintiff to specifically research, locate and recommend a testifying veterinarian expert for plaintiff. Dr. Steven Soule was hired. | D                   |
| Kevin Perkins v SPCA HoustonRoger Daly Horses   | Rita Gupta, Atty, Houston, TX (Zurich)York Risk Services, TX                           | SPCA Houston was sued by owner for confiscating two horses. Hired as an expert to opine on treatment, condition and value of horses and if the horses were in a dangerous and life threatening situation.   | D                   |
| Simoneau v Cano   | Southland Claims Services, CA  | Young Thoroughbred sent to be broke died while in training.Four Friesians killed when a tractor trailer rig hit their trailer and killed them.  | D                   |
| Pritchard v Blue Grass Energy Cooperation   | Park Priest, Attorney, KY  | Imported warmblood stallion electrocuted and died after chewing on fallen electrical lines from a storm. Value of stallion and loss of future income.   | D                   |

|   |   |   |   |
|---|---|---|---|
| Pacheco, Nataly v Michael Porter DVM                                | Joe Schreiber attorney, FL (Zurich)               | Medical mal practice suit concerning an eventing horse and the pre-purchase exam. The horse sustained a soft tissue injury after competing in two events and the purchaser believed the vet erred in his PPE.   | D |
| Pamela Munson v Equine Surgical Services; Dr. Rodrigo Vazquez       | Randy Catanese, Westlake Village, CA              | Dressage horse long listed for US Team International Competition was injected in it's front coffin joints. Irreperable infection caused career to end.  | P |
| Janis Chang v Christian Rogge; Topline Sporthorses                  | Christine Renne, attorney, Houston, TX            | Purchase case involving where trainer uses money of buyer to buy horses for himself and tells buyer that horse she is purchasing is priced at 3x what it is actually priced at. The ability, temperament and PPE exam findings were misrepresented to buyer.  | P |
| Cheryl Doolin   | Insurance Claim                                   | One of her lesson horses was killed in a trailer accident. Assisted in valuation of horse and loss of future income for settlement with insurance company. Multiple parties involved in a group lawsuit, but she opted out of lawsuit and wanted to settle separately.                                    | P |
| Ms. Johna Hansen, Paralegal   | Ms. Johna Hansen, Paralegal, AZ                   | Quarter Horse Stallion rolls off table at vets during castration and breaks a leg. Euthanized.  | P |
| Favalora, Shantel v Emily Zugar & Melissa Washington                | Lola Shoemake, Safeco Ins; , Houston              | Neighbor asks if she can ride horse. She is given permission. Neighbor wants to use her own equipment, including changing the bit on the horse. The horse rears and flips over backwards on neighbor. Neighbor crushes her pelvis. Hired for accident reconstruction and equine behavior analysis.        | P |
| Almeida-Kulla v Deep Hollow Ranch                                   | Joseph Fritzon, ESQ, New York                     | Liability Case regarding a trail riding outfit being sued by a customer who fell off during a trail ride.   | D |
| Stacey Opperman v Steven and Anne Hoch                              | Scott Wagner, ESQ, Wiscounsin                     | Fraud, misrepresentation and fiduciary responsibilty case involving the buying and selling of 1 hunter and 3 ponies. Served as Expert and also assisted at mediation.   | D |
| Bob Smith   | Bob Smith, NH                                     | Insurance settement whereby veterinarian injected pregnant mare with oxytocin. Mare aborted live foal early due to the injection.   | D |
| Diane Randazzo  | Diane Randazzo                                    | Was sold a horse that she was told was 7 years old and sound. Horse had some physical issues after she bought it. Had the horse aged and found out it was 18 - 23 years old.  | P |
| Kelly Reznicek v Memory Lane Stables                                | Leonard Law Group, Chicago IL                     | Liability Case regarding a trail riding outfit where customer's saddle slid to side and rider fell off causing physical injury and surgery. Hired to opine on stadards in the industry, accident reconstruction, equine behavior.   | P |
| Christina Brandon v Acacia Riding Academy; Gordon Edward Herkenhoff | Taryn Kaselonis, Attorney, NM                     | Liability case for trail riding outfit. Long time rider of establishment falls down side of embankment on horse and breaks ankle. Accident reconstruction, standards in the industry, animal behavior   | D |
| Jill & Debbie Boyd  | Brian Riley, Attorney, AZ.                        | Three horses are attacked by africanized bees and two are euthanized. One survived with a year long recovery. Valuation case.   | P |
| Mette Larson v Richard Cunckle                                      | Amanda Simmons Lubby, Shutts & Bowen, Orlando, FL | Imported warmblood dressage gelding sent to hunter trainer to be retrained and sold as a hunter. Was to take 2-4 months, but 8 months later horse was not trained and had foundered. Opined on value of horse, standards in industry on training a hunter on basics, resale and care custody and control. | P |
| Nanci Warnimont v Westfield Insurance                               | Ms. Manson, Adjuster                              | Neighbbors kids fed horses without permission and horse colics and dies due to being overfed. Value needed to be determined.  | D |
| Haber v Bradley   | Chapman Law Group, Wellington, FL                 | Purchase of horse is not as represented. Standards in the Industry Sales and Value of Horse.  | P |

|   |                                 |   |   |
|---|---------------------------------|---|---|
| Judith Lea Simpson v. Helen Gonzalez                      | Rioz Law, Albuquerque, NM       | Plaintiff injured when defendant placed saddle on horse and attempted to mount horse in round pen. Horse ran plaintiff over and severely injured plaintiff.                                     | P |
| Nancy Woodward v Melville, Inv                            | Mark Taylor, Orem, UT           | Student at riding school falls from horse when mounting because saddle slips 90 degrees because the girth was loose and not tightened prior to student mounting. Student suffers severe injury. | P |
| Angela Weber v Ryan Owens, Abby Owens and Rndy McReynolds | Zimmerman Law Group, Gavin Lane | Plaintiff is injured when horse is not contained while farm equipment is being used and takes off with her in an open field. She falls and is severely injured.                                 | P |

Have Been Qualified in a Court of Law
 One Bench Trial
 One Jury Trial
 4 Depositions
 1 Mediation